

REFERENCE

Carving School Garmish-Partenkirchen, Germany

Construction measure

- Waterproofing buildings – subsequent with ground contact
- Facade restoration / plinth

Type of object

- Schools / universities / museums

Brief description

Lively and creative potential combined with high quality wood working and the newest technologies have made the "Carving School in Werdenfelser Land" famous throughout German-speaking countries. By linking various educational backgrounds in one field of study all under one roof, an exchange of skills and ideas is possible that is not found elsewhere. At the vocational college for carpenters, students can learn the entire spectrum of carpentry work right up to the final examination.

Product systems used / Size

Waterproofing buildings – subsequent with ground contact
Vertical waterproofing: surface waterproofing in the Kiesol System: Sulfatex Grout, Thick Coating and Sulfiton DS System Protection

Facade restoration / plinth
Renewal of render: Restoration Render System

