

REFERENCE

Linderhof Castle; Fürth, Germany

Construction measure

- Wood preservation – preventive / controlling
- Facade restoration / natural stone

Type of object

- Schools / universities / museums
- Castles / forts

Brief description

Along with the Neuschwanstein Castle, the Linderhof Castle is one of the most significant structures dating from the period of Ludwig II of Bavaria. It is a so-called summer residence built in the style of Ludwig XIV of France.

Product systems used / Size

Facade restoration / natural stone

Facade protection: Silicone Resin Paint System

Wood preservation – preventive / controlling

Preventive and controlling wood preservation: Aidol System on load-bearing structures

