Description

The Rhein-Main area is one of the largest economic areas in Europe. This includes the commercial and industrial area on the Bavarian Lower Main. The highly sought-after location has the largest contiguous commercial and industrial area in the region, "Bayernhafen Aschaffenburg", covering an area of around 150 hectares. Approx. 70 companies from logistics, supply, recycling and production sectors are based here.

Problem

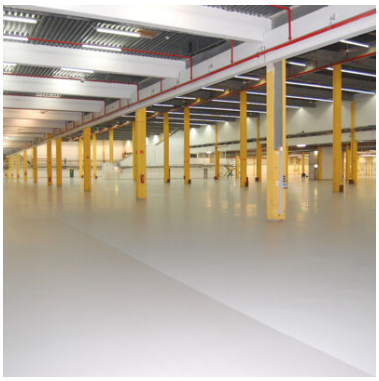

The asphalt walkways showed great damage due to decades of stress. Numerous penetrations, caused by heavy shelving fixtures and broken wall panels, led to incorrect positions The flooring was also cracked in large areas and had defective joints.
