Description

Football stadiums welcome thousands of visitors every couple of weeks or more. It is therefore vital to give the football fans a sturdy, non-slip floor under their feet, For this reason, a new floor coating that meets these requirements was applied at the Volkswagen Arena in Wolfsburg.

Problem

The old coating had visible signs of wear due to damaged sealant, and had come detached from the substrate in some areas. A new floor coating with a slip resistance rating of R11 was applied, and was sprinkled with colour flakes to create contrast.
